- e) a reference to any statute includes references to any subsequently amended, consolidated or re-enacted version of that statute and all delegated legislation or other statutory instruments made under it.

2. Grant of licence

2.1 Edval grants to the Licensee non-exclusive licence to use the Licensed Software and the Documentation during the Term subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in this document.

2.2 The licence is limited to the use of the Licensed Software by the Licensee on any computer equipment used by a person nominated by the Licensee at the Location, or on laptop computers used by approved personnel of the Licensee, however the Licensed Software is accessed.

2.3 The Licensee will be granted access to relevant security and access codes required to utilise the Licensed Software.

2.4 The Licensee must not:

2.4.1 use the Licensed Software in any way that could damage the reputation of Edval or the goodwill or other rights associated with the Licensed Software;

2.4.2 except as expressly permitted by these terms and conditions, and except to the extent that applicable laws, including the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth), prevent Edval restraining Licensee from doing so;

2.4.3 reproduce, make error corrections to or otherwise modify or adapt the Licensed Software or the Documentation or create any derivative works based upon the Software or the Documentation;

2.4.4 de-compile, disassemble or otherwise Reverse Engineer the Licensed Software or permit any third party to do so; or

2.4.5 modify or remove any copyright or proprietary notices on the Licensed Software or the Documentation.

3. Supply and installation

3.1 Edval shall supply and/or make available the Licensed Software and the Documentation to the Licensee on the Commencement Date.

3.2 If the Licensee reasonably requests, Edval may install the Licensed Software on the Licensee's computer equipment at a cost and time agreed between the parties.

3.3 Upon initial installation, or the Licensee's download of the Licensed Software, the Licensee shall be deemed to have accepted the Licensed Software.

4. Intellectual Property Rights

4.1 Nothing in these terms and conditions constitutes a transfer of any Intellectual Property Rights.

4.2 The Licensee:

4.2.1 acknowledges that Edval owns all Intellectual Property Rights in the Licensed Software; and

4.2.2 will not directly or indirectly do anything that would or might invalidate or put in dispute Edval's title in the Licensed Software.

4.3 Edval warrants that the Licensed Software:

4.3.1 is owned by Edval alone and that no other person has any claim to, or interest in, any Intellectual Property Rights in the Licensed Software;

4.3.2 is Edval's original work (or Edval personnel's original work), not copied wholly or substantially from any other item or thing which is protected by copyright anywhere in the world; and

4.3.3 do not infringe any person's Intellectual Property Rights.

4.4 Edval retains ownership of the Licensed Software, whether in its original form as provided to the licensee or as specially modified by Edval for the use of the Licensee during the term of the licence.

4.5 The Licensee will not directly or indirectly engage or cause the Licensed Software to be subject of Reverse Engineering.

4.6 Edval must at all times indemnify the Licensee against all claims, liabilities, losses, expenses and costs (including legal costs and expenses on a solicitor/client basis) incurred or suffered in connection with claim or demand by any person for infringement of Intellectual Property Rights arising directly or indirectly from the creation or use of the Licensed Software (a Claim).

4.7 If a Claim occurs, without limiting Licensee's rights and remedies under these terms and conditions, Edval will, at no additional cost to Licensee:

4.7.1 procure for Licensee the right to continue to use the Licensed Software or part of the Licensed Software which is the subject of the Claim (Infringing Item);

4.7.2 modify, replace or adapt the Infringing Item:

a) so that the Infringing Item no longer infringes any third party's Intellectual Property Rights; and

b) without any loss of functionality, operability or performance in Licensee's use of the Software; or 4.7.3 if Edval cannot achieve the remedies under clause 4.7.2(a) or 4.7.2(b), Edval must immediately refund to Licensee all Fees relating to the Infringing Item and any other affected items.

5. Modifications

5.1 The Licensee shall not modify the whole or any part of the Licensed Software or combine or incorporate any part of the Licensed Software into any other program or system.

6. Security

6.1 The Licensee shall be responsible for protecting the Licensed Software and the Documentation at all times from unauthorised access, use or damage.

6.2 Where the Licensee has an employee or contractor who uses the Licensed Software or Documentation remotely, in the event that employee or contractor is no longer employed or engaged by the Licensee, the Licensee must ensure the Licensed Software and/or Documentation are promptly returned to the Licensee.

6.3 Where Edval stores any data of the Licensee on its servers, Edval shall take all reasonable steps to protect the security and integrity of that data and to ensure that the Licensee can access that data at any time.

7. Risk

7.1 Risk of loss or damage to the Licensed Software and the Documentation shall pass to the Licensee upon delivery or authorised download of the Licensed Software to the Location.

7.2 Maintenance of all data created and implemented using the Licensed Software is the responsibility of the Licensee.

7.3 Edval cannot guarantee that the Software is free of defects or viruses and it is the User's responsibility to ensure that the Software is appropriately tested with anti-virus software prior to installation and during use.

8. Payment

8.1 The Licensee must pay Edval the Fees.

8.2 After the Initial Invoice, Edval will invoice the Licensee for the Fees annually.

8.3 Each invoice is payable within 30 days of the date of the invoice.

8.4 The Fees are exclusive of all taxes, duties and surcharges payable in respect of the Licensed Software.

8.5 If any payment is not made within the period specified under Clause 8.3, Edval shall be entitled, at its discretion, to:

8.5.1 Suspend its remaining obligations under these terms and conditions until the payment, and any interest owing, has been paid; and/or

8.5.2 Terminate the Software Licence; and/or

8.5.3 Re-possess or restrict access to the Licensed Software; and/or

8.5.4 Cease to provide support services, if any, to the Licensee.

9. GST

9.1 All amounts payable under these terms and conditions are expressed exclusive of GST.

9.2 In respect of any taxable supply, the Licensee must pay to Edval an additional amount equal to the prevailing GST rate, payable at the same time and in the same manner as the Fees, subject to the receipt by the Licensee of a valid tax invoice.

10. Licensed Software Support and Maintenance

10.1 Edval will provide the Licensee the availability of a consultant to assist as reasonably required with the initial data migration, file set up and initial training as separately quoted for and invoiced, in connection with the installation or download of the Licensed Software.

10.2 Edval shall provide the Support Portal and updates and new releases of the Licensed Software from time to time and use reasonable endeavours to maintain the Licensed Software in substantial conformity with the functionality set out in the Initial Invoice.

10.3 Maintenance and support services required of Edval under clause 10.2 do not include the following:

- (a) rectification of defects or errors resulting from any modification of the Licensed Software made by any person other than Edval;
- (b) rectification of defects or errors resulting from use of the Licensed Software in combination with equipment other than authorised computer equipment;
- (c) rectification of operating errors;
- (d) rectification of a fault in the computer equipment used by the Licensee;
- (e) answering queries concerning how to use the Licensed Software, or queries that would require analysis of the Licensee's specific needs.
- (f) dealing with issues caused by internet access faults.

11. Timetable Support Services

11.1 For the first term of the Agreement Edval will provide the Licensee with Timetable Support Services on the terms set out in the Initial Invoice.

11.2 For the second and subsequent years of the Agreement Edval may provide Timetable Support Services on terms to be agreed.

12. Warranties

12.1 Each party warrants to the other that it has the right and ability to enter into the Agreement and that these terms and conditions will be legally binding on it.

12.2 Edval warrants to the Licensee that:

12.2.1 the Licensed Software will meet the functionality set out in the Initial Invoice;

and

12.2.2 any use of the Licensed Software by the Licensee in accordance with these terms and conditions will not infringe any right of any party, and will not breach any applicable law or relevant industry code.

12.3 Edval will indemnify the Licensee against all costs (including legal costs), expenses, damages, accounts or other losses or liability, including those from any actions, suits, proceedings, claims or demands, made against or suffered by the Licensee, arising out of Edval's breach of these terms and conditions, except to the extent to which it arises out of any breach by the Licensee of these terms and conditions or any negligent act or omission by the Licensee or its agents.

13. Liability

13.1 To the full extent permitted by law, neither party will be liable in respect of loss of data, interruption of business or any consequential or incidental damages.

13.2 Where the Australian Consumer Law or other laws imply conditions or warranties or give other rights in respect of these terms and conditions, the maximum liability of Edval for any breach of such a condition, warranty or right will (but only to the extent permitted by law) be limited in the case of services supplied, to the supplying of the services again or the payment of the lesser of the reasonable cost of having the services supplied again, or the total of all Licence Fees paid by the Licensee to the date of the breach.

13.3 Either party's liability for any claim relating to these terms and conditions will be reduced to the extent to which the other party contributed to the damage arising from the claim.

14. Termination

14.1 A party may terminate the Agreement by written notice to the other if any of the following events has occurred in respect of the other party:

14.1.1 a material breach of these terms and conditions which is not remediable or if capable of remedy, where the other party fails to remedy within 14 days of written notice;

14.1.2 an Insolvency Event occurs, other than an internal reconstruction with notice to the other party.

14.2.3 the permanent discontinuance of use of the Licensed Software or any part of the Licensed Software by the Licensee.

14.2 In the event of termination, and at Edval's request, the licensee shall destroy such software, copies, revisions, enhancements and upgrades by erasing them from the location and shall certify in writing to Edval that the Licensed Software has been destroyed.

14.3 Any termination of the Agreement shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either party nor affect any provision of these terms and conditions which are expressly or implicitly intended to continue in force following such termination.

15. Consequences of Termination

15.1 If the Agreement is terminated or expires for any reason, then, in addition to and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available:

15.1.1 the parties are immediately released from their obligations under the Agreement except those obligations in clauses 6, 8, 13, 14 and 16, and any other obligations that, by their nature, survive termination;

15.1.2 each party retains the claims it has against the other;

16. Confidentiality and Privacy

16.1 A party must not, without the prior written consent of the other, use or disclose the other party's Confidential Information unless expressly permitted by these terms and conditions or required to do so by law or any regulatory authority.

16.2 A party may:

16.2.1 use the Confidential Information of the other party solely for the purposes of complying with its obligations and exercising its rights under these terms and conditions; and

16.2.2 disclose the Confidential Information to its personnel or advisers to the extent necessary for them to know the information for purposes related to these terms and conditions, but only if reasonable steps are taken to ensure that the confidentiality of the information is retained.

16.3 Each party must implement and maintain effective security measures to prevent unauthorised use and disclosure of the other party's Confidential Information whilst it is in the receiving party's possession or control.

16.4 Each party must return, or at the other party's option destroy, all Confidential Information of the disclosing party in the receiving party's possession or control, on the earlier of Edval's request or on termination of the Agreement for any reason.

16.5 The Licensee will restrict access to and knowledge of proprietary information in respect of the software to employees of the Licensee who are directly involved with the use of the Licensed Software and such information will remain confidential.

16.6 In addition to meeting its statutory obligations in respect of privacy, Edval will comply with the terms of its Privacy Policy published at <http://www.edval.com.au/privacy-policy>.

17. Notices

17.1 The parties' contact details for notices under these terms and conditions are as set out in the Initial Invoice, or as otherwise notified by one party to the other from time to time.

17.2 All notices must be in writing and can be given by:

17.2.1 hand delivery during normal business hours;

17.2.2 registered post; or

17.2.3 facsimile followed within 2 business days by one of the means listed above.

17.3 A notice is deemed to be given and received:

17.3.1 if delivered in accordance with clause 17.2.1 on the next business day after the day of delivery;

17.3.2 if sent in accordance with clause 17.2.2 within 5 clear business days after the day of posting;

17.3.3 if sent in accordance with clause 17.2.3 on the next business day after transmission.

18. General

18.1 Nothing contained in these terms and conditions creates any relationship of partnership or agency between the parties.

18.2 If a provision of these terms and conditions is invalid or unenforceable it is to be read down or severed to the extent necessary without affecting the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.

18.3 Each party must at its own expense do everything reasonably necessary to give full effect to these terms and conditions and the events contemplated by it.

18.4 These terms and conditions (and any documents executed in connection with it, including the Initial Invoice) is the entire agreement of the parties about its subject matter and supersedes all other representations, arrangements or agreements. Other than as expressly set out in these terms and conditions, no party has relied on any representation made by or on behalf of the other.

18.5 These terms and conditions supersede all prior agreements between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the software.

18.6 These terms and conditions may be amended only by a document signed by all parties.

18.7 A provision of or a right under these terms and conditions may not be waived or varied except in writing signed by the person to be bound.

18.8 A party will not be responsible for a failure to comply with its obligations under these terms and conditions to the extent that failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event, provided that the party keeps the other closely informed in such circumstances and uses reasonable endeavours to rectify the situation.

18.9 Without limiting any other right to terminate under these terms and conditions, if a Force Majeure Event affects a party's performance under the Agreement for more than thirty (30) consecutive days, the other party may immediately terminate the Agreement by written notice.

18.10 All stamp duties and other government charges in relation to the Agreement must be paid by Edval.

18.11 These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of New South Wales and each party submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.
